

TENNESSEE GENERAL ASSEMBLY
FISCAL REVIEW COMMITTEE

FISCAL NOTE

SB 2806 - HB 2936

January 28, 2010

SUMMARY OF BILL: Requires students in the National Guard or military reserve on active military duty who are absent from state institutions of higher education, including Tennessee technology centers, in excess of 30 days for such service, to receive tuition credit for each credit hour paid for or for a refund of payments to be made. Credit shall only be given if the student did not receive a final grade in the class or course for which tuition is sought.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

Increase State Expenditures – Not Significant

Assumption:

- Current law requires tuition credit to be given to such students attending a state college or university without a 30 day floor. Any increase in state expenditures is estimated to be not significant.
